

Emergency Medical Kit: EU OPS 1.755

The following should be included in the emergency medical kit carried in the aeroplane

Equipment:

- Sphygmomanometer (non mercury)
- Stethoscope
- Syringes and needles
- IV cannulae (if IV fluids are carried)
- Oropharyngeal airways (3 sizes)
- Tourniquet
- Disposable gloves
- Needle disposal box
- Urinary catheter (2 sizes) and anaesthetic gel
- Basic delivery kit
- Bag-valve masks (2 sizes)
  - 1 for adults
  - 1 for children
- Thermometer (non mercury)
- Forceps
- Intubation set
- Aspirator
- Blood glucose testing equipment
- Automated external defibrillator
  - Should be carried on the aircraft, not necessarily in the emergency medical kit

Instructions:

- Basic instructions for use of the medications in the kit
- A list of contents (medications in trade names and generic names)
  - In at least 2 languages (English and one other)
  - This should include information on the effects and side effects of medications carried
- Advanced Cardiac Life Support cards
  - Summarising the current algorithm for ACLS

Medications:

- Coronary vasodilator
- Anti-spasmodic
- Epinephrine/Adrenaline
- Adrenocortical steroid
- Major analgesic
- Diuretic
- Antihistaminecum
- Sedative/anticonvulsant
- Medication for hypoglycaemia
- Antiemetic
- Alkaloid
- Bronchial dilator
- IV fluids (if carried)
- Acetylsalicyl Acid
- Antiarrhythmic
- Antihypertensive medication
- Antibiotic